

Internship Placement Programme (Unpaid) - Ireland

Our internship opportunities are open to students from the European Union. You can participate in the part-time or full-time work experience programme, giving them the opportunity to:

Develop transferable soft skills including:

- Communication skills – talking with team members and in written form.
- Confidence – by approaching people and getting a positive response.
- Teamwork – this is key to understanding other people's skill sets and to give great customer service.
- Problem-solving – "tell me a time when you solved a problem" is a common job interview question.
- Awareness.

Other benefits:

- Etiquette – How to do things/ speak to people appropriately by watching others with more experience.
- Cultural awareness – What is ok in one country or section of society is not ok in another.

What is hospitality?

Hospitality is the generous and friendly reception, treatment, and entertainment of visitors, guests, and strangers. It is the business of providing food, drink, and accommodation for customers of restaurants, bars, cafés, hotels, and other locations. It involves tending to their needs, making sure they are comfortable, and providing services that are required by them from time to time.

Range of tasks

Supporting the organisation in a hands-on way, this is an opportunity to gain experience in a range of different areas based on the volunteer's interests such as:

- Customer service
- Hospitality
- Food preparation
- Tourism
- Travel
- Accommodation
