Additional Info

Stratford is a buzzing shopping and leisure hub. Popular with families, the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is home to the London Aquatics Centre with its wave-shaped roof, the London Stadium, and several play areas. Towering over the park, ArcelorMittal Orbit is a spiral sculpture with a tunnel slide. Restaurants, bars, and fashion boutiques fill the vast Westfield Stratford City mall.

CURRENCY

The UK currency is the pound sterling (£/GBP). There are 100 pence, or pence, to the pound.

POPULATION

8.982 million (London)

LANGUAGES

English is the official language spoken in the United Kingdom.

Heritage

Best known as the location for the 2012 London Olympics. Stratford is home to the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, a sporting complex built for the 2012 Summer Olympics and the Paralympics and is named after Elizabeth II to commemorate her Diamond Jubilee

Cultural activities

London, the capital city of The United Kingdom, is one of the world's most fascinating cities. Cultural Quarter, in Stratford, adjacent to the shopping centre, is home to several arts venues, bars and cafes as well as to the Theatre Royal Stratford East

Leisure time

Just nine minutes on a Central line Tube from Central London, Stratford boasts the largest shopping mall in Europe, Britain's tallest sculpture and a world-class swimming pool with a wave-shaped roof.

Learning

We support our students' learning process from all angles. We offer a comprehensive syllabus focused on communication skills.
